THREE FIRST CHOICES WON

Good Day of It.

Son Malheur and Ben the Outsiders to Pinish Pirst.

Sixteen Fencilers Gave the Public a Chance to Back the Horres, the Opportunity Being Eagerly Accepted by a Large Crowd of Speculators-Thurston and Indra, Both Ham's Proport, Won for Their Owner.

Followers of Jockey Ham- and there are many, especially among the lady patrons of yesterday, be riding four winners. Two of them, Son Malheur and Hen, were long shots, the former closing at 8 and the latter at 12 to 1. The other two were favorites and both Ham's property. Starter Cassidy was in rather poor form. He left Wheeleski, in the two-year-old event, as good as at the post, and in the slieged race, the second on the card, he dropped his flag with three horses, among them being Jack Wynne, almost being among them being Jack Wynne, almost being pulled up, the riders of the latter thinking it to be no go. Despite his bad send off Jack Wynne ran a fine race.

The weather having cleared nicely, it was no surprise for the management to see a large crowd passing through the gates. The betting was very brisk, sixteen pouciers being kept busy the entire afternoon. The track, although apparently dry on top, was still heavy underappearently dry on top, was still heavy under-

The leature on the programme was the six-The Senture on the programme was the sar-furious dash for all ages, with seven starters. Lexam and Strocco were the star performers among the lot, and the betting, of course, center d entirely upon them, the two-year-old filly closing a slight favorite over the former great sprinter. She never gave her tackers much unessiness. Getting off well in front de showed Strocco the way by a length front she showed Sirocco the way by a length and a ball for most of the distance and wan and a rant for from the by street inngits.

The opening event, for which thirteen platers have fire flar, narrowed down to a fight between Son Matheur, My Girl Colt, and Gertie, the former winning by a neck. Gertie Gerrie, the former wiming by a need, Gerrie apolled her chances by stumbling in the last quarter. In the mile race Thurston and Gallinging hing groved the best of the thirteen confections, Ham's recent purchase, Thurston, wiming in a drive by three parts of a length. The two-year-old in c resulted in a surprise. Ben, a 12 to 1 shot, waning cleverly by a neck, and the code on favorite, Northlord, Building in the rear. The last named colt apparently had not been out of his stall sure mince mest" out of a field of fair

In the closing event, at six and a half furlongs, there seemed to be only two horses in it, judging from the state of the betting. The H, judging results said of the centre. It is public wanted nothing but Indra and Frank it. Harf. At the finish one of the outsiders, Blue Bird, came near splitting the two cholees. Indra woo all out by an open length, whole Frank B. Harf was only three parts of a length before Blue Bird. Sum-
